2021/4.1 NoD – Certification transition for lead free plumbing products

2022/1.0 NoD – Acceptable copper alloys for lead free plumbing products

NOTICES OF DIRECTION

Look for the WaterMark on plumbing products campaign

The Australian Building Codes Board (ABCB) are urging consumers to make sure any products they buy are certified and authorised for use in Australia. WaterMark is a mandatory national product certification scheme for specified plumbing and drainage products to ensure they are fit for purpose and safe for use. Read more

WATERMARK CAMPAIGN

Register for the NCC 2022 seminars (Volume Three)

For the first time in a decade, the Australian Building Codes Board (ABCBC) is hosting dedicated Plumbing Code of Australia seminars nationally in partnership with local jurisdictions from July to September 2022. The sessions are free of charge and will support your understanding of the key changes for when the 2022 edition of the National Construction Code is adopted on 1 September 2022.
